"My experience with CAMP was life changing. Being part of the group made me feel comfortable and the support system helped me out while I was away from my family. I will always remember the generous help I received."

- Carmen Hernandez, McFarland, CA.

Carmen is currently serving in the U.S. Air Force and is stationed at McConnell Air Force Base in Wichita, KS.

"Being part of a migrant family and a GCCC graduation is something that I am highly proud of. Thanks to all the support I received from CAMP, I was able to go to college and move on to my career."

- Jacob Rico Martinez, 2019 Transfer, KSU Engineering

"As a CAMP alumni, I am very grateful for the experiences and opportunities given to me at Garden City Community College. It is because of CAMP that I, a first-generation student was able to further my education and accomplish my goals."

- Berenice Ayala, KU School of Nursing
