WHAT'S YOUR Major?

DID YOU KNOW...

GCCC IS ONE OF THE BEST TRANSFER INSTITUTIONS IN KANSAS? It's true. Students that start at GCCC and transfer to a 4 year university have proven to be more successful than students who went straight to a university. There are so many perks to starting at GCCC, like LESS TUITION! Some students even leave GCCC debt free.

FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID - FAFSA

Federal Pell grants and Federal loans are available to eligible students. Student eligibility is based on financial need determined by the U.S. Department of Education and reviewed by the United States Congress annually.

- FEDERAL PELL GRANTS do not have to be repaid. Grants range in size according to student eligibility and the student's level of enrollment.
- SUBSIDIZED AND UNSUBSIDIZED FEDERAL LOANS have to be repaid once the student completes their degree or certificate or if the student drops out.

Learn more about federal financial aid @ GCCC

Visit the FAFSA page for more details on applying and requirements.

OTHER WAYS TO PAY FOR COLLEGE

There are many programs on campus that allow students to earn scholarships or even a paycheck.

- TUTORING

Become a paid tutor for the Comprehensive Learning Center (CLC) or STEM.

- WORK-STUDY

Work-study programs are available for students to work on campus around their class schedule.

- PRESIDENTIAL AMBASSADOR

Students can be a Presidential Ambassador and represent GCCC at events and activities - and maybe even be featured in a GCCC commercial! Speak to your high school counselor for more details.

- LOCAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Check for off-campus scholarships in your community. Churches, foundations, and other local organizations often provide scholarships for local students.

- CAMP & TRIO-SSS PROGRAMS

Check out on-campus programs like CAMP and TRIO Student Support Services (SSS) that can earn you a scholarship.

- KANSAS PROMISE SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship is a last dollar scholarship, which means that a student may receive a scholarship for the amount financial aid did not cover. Students can choose a Kansas Promise Scholarship eligible program and receive a scholarship for their remaining balance after any other financial aid has been applied.
