Nursing	Course Program Map
	AAS Nursing
	AS Nursing
		Provider of Care								Manager of Care			Member within the Discipline of Nursing
Program Outcomes: Upon completion of the program, graduates will be able to…	Employability Skills	integrate research to aide in effective communication.	apply critical thinking skills and the nursing process to assess, analyze, plan, implement and evaluate nursing care.	demonstrate clear, accurate and objective documentation of patient status and nursing interventions.	employ interpersonal and therapeutic communication skills in working with clients, families and members of the health care team.	practice appropriate technical skills in administering safe nursing care.	demonstrate caring behaviors and considering the uniqueness of the client by allowing participation in their plan of care, providing for privacy and maintaining confidentiality in health care matters.	employ principles of teaching and learning in a collaborative approach to support the client, family, and significant others to maintain or reach an optimal level of functioning and to promote practices that foster health.	examine values, beliefs and practices of different cultures and subcultures in planning nursing care.	practice managerial skills in prioritizing, administering and delegating nursing care.	demonstrate knowledge of roles and functions of members of the health care team in relation to their own role.	promote and evaluate the use of cost efficiency measures implemented by team members	administer nursing care in a manner, which demonstrates an awareness of legal/ethical responsibilities while adhering to the current standards of nursing practice.	recognize and accept responsibility for personal and professional behaviors and growth.	identify the need for and promoting advocacy while respecting the client's dignity, choices and rights.	promote the professional image of nursing and participating in the advancement of the profession.
Courses
NURS 200 Advanced Clinical Skills	P	I	IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA
NURS 201 Maternal Child II	CP		IRMA	IRA	IRA		IRA	IRA	IRMA		IRA		IRA		IRA
NURS 202 Health Alterations Clinical	CPW		IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA
NURS 203 Mental Health II	CP		IRMA	IRA	IRMA		IRA	IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA	IRA	IRA
NURS 204 Health Alterations	CP		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA	IRMA				IRMA		IRMA
NURS 212 Complex Health Alterations	CP		RMA	RMA	RMA	RMA	RMA	RMA	RMA	RMA	RMA	RMA	RMA	RMA	RMA	RMA	RMA
NURS 213 Professional Practice	CPW		IRMA		IRA		IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRMA		IRMA	IRMA	IRA	IRMA
NURS 214 Complex Health Alterations	CPW		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA	IRMA		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA
ENGL 102 English II		IRMA

Mapping
I	Introduced
R	Reinforced
M	Mastered
A	Assessed/Artifact

Essential Skills
1	written communication
2	oral communication
3	critical thinking
4	cultural diversity
5	social responsibility

Employability Skills
C	communication
P	problem solving
W	work ethic

NURS 200 Advanced Clinical Skills	AAS Nursing
	AS Nursing
	Curriculum Map
		Provider of Care									Manager of Care			Member within the Discipline of Nursing
Program Outcomes	integrate research to aide in effective communication.	apply critical thinking skills and the nursing process to assess, analyze, plan, implement and evaluate nursing care.	demonstrate clear, accurate and objective documentation of patient status and nursing interventions.	employ interpersonal and therapeutic communication skills in working with clients, families and members of the health care team.	practice appropriate technical skills in administering safe nursing care.	demonstrate caring behaviors and considering the uniqueness of the client by allowing participation in their plan of care, providing for privacy and maintaining confidentiality in health care matters.	employ principles of teaching and learning in a collaborative approach to support the client, family, and significant others to maintain or reach an optimal level of functioning and to promote practices that foster health.	examine values, beliefs and practices of different cultures and subcultures in planning nursing care.	practice managerial skills in prioritizing, administering and delegating nursing care.	demonstrate knowledge of roles and functions of members of the health care team in relation to their own role.	promote and evaluate the use of cost efficiency measures implemented by team members.	administer nursing care in a manner, which demonstrates an awareness of legal/ethical responsibilities while adhering to the current standards of nursing practice.	recognize and accept responsibility for personal and professional behaviors and growth.	identify the need for and promoting advocacy while respecting the client's dignity, choices and rights.	promote the professional image of nursing and participating in the advancement of the profession.
Course SLO: Students will be able to interpret basic electrocardiograms.			IRA		IRA		I			IR manage chest tube drainage systems.			IRA		IRA		I			IR demonstrate tracheostomy care and suctioning procedures.			IRA		IRA			IR demonstrate initiation and maintenance of a peripheral intravenous site.		IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA demonstrate administration of intravenous (IV) medications.		IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA			IRA		IRA demonstrate nursing care of a patient receiving total parenteral nutrition (TPN).		IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA			IRA		IRA demonstrate care and maintenance of central venous lines.		IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA			IRA		IRA discuss the responsibility of the nurse when caring for a client receiving fluid therapy.	I	IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA			IRA		IRA explore nursing care of a client receiving blood products.	I	IRA	IA		IA		IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA

NURS 201 Maternal Child II	AAS Nursing
	AS Nursing
	Curriculum Map
		Provider of Care								Manager of Care			Member within the Discipline of Nursing
Program Outcomes	integrate research to aide in effective communication.	apply critical thinking skills and the nursing process to assess, analyze, plan, implement and evaluate nursing care.	demonstrate clear, accurate and objective documentation of patient status and nursing interventions.	employ interpersonal and therapeutic communication skills in working with clients, families and members of the health care team.	practice appropriate technical skills in administering safe nursing care.	demonstrate caring behaviors and considering the uniqueness of the client by allowing participation in their plan of care, providing for privacy and maintaining confidentiality in health care matters.	employ principles of teaching and learning in a collaborative approach to support the client, family, and significant others to maintain or reach an optimal level of functioning and to promote practices that foster health.	examine values, beliefs and practices of different cultures and subcultures in planning nursing care.	practice managerial skills in prioritizing, administering and delegating nursing care.	demonstrate knowledge of roles and functions of members of the health care team in relation to their own role.	promote and evaluate the use of cost efficiency measures implemented by team members.	administer nursing care in a manner, which demonstrates an awareness of legal/ethical responsibilities while adhering to the current standards of nursing practice.	recognize and accept responsibility for personal and professional behaviors and growth.	identify the need for and promoting advocacy while respecting the client's dignity, choices and rights.	promote the professional image of nursing and participating in the advancement of the profession.
Course SLO: Students will be able to apply the nursing process to the care of clients with complicated reproductive issues.		IRMA		IRA		IRA	IRA	IRMA		IRA		IRA		IRA apply the nursing process to the care of clients with complicated antepartum issues.		IRMA		IRA		IRA	IRA	IRMA		IRA		IRA		IRA apply the nursing process to the care of clients with complicated intrapartum issues.		IRMA		IRA		IRA	IRA	IRMA		IRA		IRA		IRA apply the nursing process to the care of clients with complicated postpartum issues.		IRMA		IRA		IRA	IRA	IRMA		IRA		IRA		IRA apply the nursing process to the care of newborns with complications		IRMA		IRA		IRA	IRA	IRMA		IRA		IRA		IRA apply the nursing process to the care of acute or chronically ill children.		IRMA		IRA		IRA	IRA	IRMA		IRA		IRA		IRA
develop a health promotion plan for the child rearing family.		IRMA	IRA	IRA		IRA	IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA		IRA

NURS 202 Health Alterations Clinical		AAS Nursing
		AS Nursing
		Curriculum Map
		Provider of Care								Manager of Care			Member within the Discipline of Nursing
Program Outcomes	integrate research to aide in effective communication.	apply critical thinking skills and the nursing process to assess, analyze, plan, implement and evaluate nursing care.	demonstrate clear, accurate and objective documentation of patient status and nursing interventions.	employ interpersonal and therapeutic communication skills in working with clients, families and members of the health care team.	practice appropriate technical skills in administering safe nursing care.	demonstrate caring behaviors and considering the uniqueness of the client by allowing participation in their plan of care, providing for privacy and maintaining confidentiality in health care matters.	employ principles of teaching and learning in a collaborative approach to support the client, family, and significant others to maintain or reach an optimal level of functioning and to promote practices that foster health.	examine values, beliefs and practices of different cultures and subcultures in planning nursing care.	practice managerial skills in prioritizing, administering and delegating nursing care.	demonstrate knowledge of roles and functions of members of the health care team in relation to their own role.	promote and evaluate the use of cost efficiency measures implemented by team members.	administer nursing care in a manner, which demonstrates an awareness of legal/ethical responsibilities while adhering to the current standards of nursing practice.	recognize and accept responsibility for personal and professional behaviors and growth.	identify the need for and promoting advocacy while respecting the client's dignity, choices and rights.	promote the professional image of nursing and participating in the advancement of the profession.
Course SLO: Students will be able to apply critical thinking skills and the nursing process to assess, analyze, plan, implement and evaluate nursing care.		IRA
demonstrate accurate, clear and concise terminology in documentation, which objectively describes nursing assessments, interventions and client responses to therapy.			IRA employ interpersonal and therapeutic communication skills utilizing developmental principles in working with individuals, families, and members of the health care team.				IRA perform level appropriate technical skills in administering safe nursing care.					IRA demonstrate caring behaviors by respecting the individuality of clients, maintaining confidentiality, and exploring coping behaviors and their impact on health care.						IRA provide information from established teaching plans and considering significant characteristics of growth and development to guide clients and/or families to meet health needs.							IRA identify and responding to the client's values, beliefs, and cultural practices when planning nursing care.								IRA manage and effectively organizing care of individuals and families with increasingly complex needs through collaboration with other members of the health care team.									IRA demonstrate knowledge of the roles and functions of members of the health care team by incorporating team functions in the plan of care.										IRA
identify and implement nursing strategies which provide cost efficient care to assist the client toward a positive outcome.											IRA apply knowledge of legal/ethical responsibilities to nursing practice, while adhering to current standards of practice.												IRA recognize and assume responsibility for personal and professional behaviors and growth.													IRA

identify the need for and promoting advocacy while respecting the client's dignity, choices and rights.														IRA
promote the professional image of nursing, and identify with direction how the nurse could participate in the advancement of the profession.															IRA

NURS 203 Mental Health II	AAS Nursing
	AS Nursing
	Curriculum Map
		Provider of Care								Manager of Care			Member within the Discipline of Nursing
Program Outcomes	integrate research to aide in effective communication.	apply critical thinking skills and the nursing process to assess, analyze, plan, implement and evaluate nursing care.	demonstrate clear, accurate and objective documentation of patient status and nursing interventions.	employ interpersonal and therapeutic communication skills in working with clients, families and members of the health care team.	practice appropriate technical skills in administering safe nursing care.	demonstrate caring behaviors and considering the uniqueness of the client by allowing participation in their plan of care, providing for privacy and maintaining confidentiality in health care matters.	employ principles of teaching and learning in a collaborative approach to support the client, family, and significant others to maintain or reach an optimal level of functioning and to promote practices that foster health.	examine values, beliefs and practices of different cultures and subcultures in planning nursing care.	practice managerial skills in prioritizing, administering and delegating nursing care.	demonstrate knowledge of roles and functions of members of the health care team in relation to their own role.	promote and evaluate the use of cost efficiency measures implemented by team members.	administer nursing care in a manner, which demonstrates an awareness of legal/ethical responsibilities while adhering to the current standards of nursing practice.	recognize and accept responsibility for personal and professional behaviors and growth.	identify the need for and promoting advocacy while respecting the client's dignity, choices and rights.	promote the professional image of nursing and participating in the advancement of the profession.
Course SLO: Students will be able to apply the nursing process when planning care for clients with mental health disorders across the lifespan.		IRMA		IRMA		IRA	IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA		IRA explore nursing care for individuals, families and groups with complex mental health issues		IRMA		IRMA		IRA	IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA		IRA
apply crisis intervention techniques		IRMA		IRMA		IRA	IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA	IRA	IRA
adapt and maintain therapeutic relationships when caring for clients with mental health issues.		IRMA		IRMA		IRA	IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA		IRA
adapt nursing interventions for maladaptive patterns of behavior.		IRMA		IRMA		IRA	IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA		IRA
promote healthy coping mechanisms.		IRMA		IRMA		IRA	IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA	IRA	IRA
plan nursing care for clients with mental health disorders utilizing community resources.		IRMA	IRA	IRMA		IRA	IRA	IRA		IRA		IRA		IRA

NURS 204 Health Alterations	AAS Nursing
	AS Nursing
	Curriculum Map
		Provider of Care								Manager of Care			Member within the Discipline of Nursing
Program Outcomes	integrate research to aide in effective communication.	apply critical thinking skills and the nursing process to assess, analyze, plan, implement and evaluate nursing care.	demonstrate clear, accurate and objective documentation of patient status and nursing interventions.	employ interpersonal and therapeutic communication skills in working with clients, families and members of the health care team.	practice appropriate technical skills in administering safe nursing care.	demonstrate caring behaviors and considering the uniqueness of the client by allowing participation in their plan of care, providing for privacy and maintaining confidentiality in health care matters.	employ principles of teaching and learning in a collaborative approach to support the client, family, and significant others to maintain or reach an optimal level of functioning and to promote practices that foster health.	examine values, beliefs and practices of different cultures and subcultures in planning nursing care.	practice managerial skills in prioritizing, administering and delegating nursing care.	demonstrate knowledge of roles and functions of members of the health care team in relation to their own role.	promote and evaluate the use of cost efficiency measures implemented by team members.	administer nursing care in a manner, which demonstrates an awareness of legal/ethical responsibilities while adhering to the current standards of nursing practice.	recognize and accept responsibility for personal and professional behaviors and growth.	identify the need for and promoting advocacy while respecting the client's dignity, choices and rights.	promote the professional image of nursing and participating in the advancement of the profession.
Course SLO: Students will be able to apply the nursing process to the care of clients with alterations of the immune system.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA		IR			IRMA		IRMA apply the nursing process to the care of clients with alterations of the hematology system.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA		IR			IRMA		IRMA apply the nursing process to the care of clients with alterations of the gastrointestinal system.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA		IR			IRMA		IRMA apply the nursing process to the care of clients with alterations of the renal/urinary system.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA		IR			IRMA		IRMA develop a health promotion/disease prevention plan for clients with increasing complex needs.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA		IR			IRMA		IRMA utilize principles of teaching when reinforcing teaching plans when caring for clients and families.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA	IRMA	IR			IRMA		IRMA utilize critical thinking to adapt the care of culturally and economically diverse clients and families.		IRMA		IRMA				IRMA	IR			IRMA		IRMA
apply principles of family dynamics when caring for clients and families.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA		IR			IRMA		IRMA

NURS 212 Complex Health Alterations Clinical	AAS Nursing
	AS Nursing
	Curriculum Map
		Provider of Care								Manager of Care			Member within the Discipline of Nursing
Program Outcomes	integrate research to aide in effective communication.	apply critical thinking skills and the nursing process to assess, analyze, plan, implement and evaluate nursing care.	demonstrate clear, accurate and objective documentation of patient status and nursing interventions.	employ interpersonal and therapeutic communication skills in working with clients, families and members of the health care team.	practice appropriate technical skills in administering safe nursing care.	demonstrate caring behaviors and considering the uniqueness of the client by allowing participation in their plan of care, providing for privacy and maintaining confidentiality in health care matters.	employ principles of teaching and learning in a collaborative approach to support the client, family, and significant others to maintain or reach an optimal level of functioning and to promote practices that foster health.	examine values, beliefs and practices of different cultures and subcultures in planning nursing care.	practice managerial skills in prioritizing, administering and delegating nursing care.	demonstrate knowledge of roles and functions of members of the health care team in relation to their own role.	promote and evaluate the use of cost efficiency measures implemented by team members.	administer nursing care in a manner, which demonstrates an awareness of legal/ethical responsibilities while adhering to the current standards of nursing practice.	recognize and accept responsibility for personal and professional behaviors and growth.	identify the need for and promoting advocacy while respecting the client's dignity, choices and rights.	promote the professional image of nursing and participating in the advancement of the profession.
Course SLO: Students will be able to
apply critical thinking skills and the nursing process to assess, analyze, plan, implement and evaluate nursing care.		RMA
demonstrate clear, accurate and objective documentation of patient status and nursing interventions, using a variety of charting formats.			RMA
employ interpersonal and therapeutic communication skills in working with clients, families and members of the health care team.				RMA
perform level appropriate technical skills in administering safe nursing care.					RMA
demonstrate caring behaviors and considering the uniqueness of the client by allowing participation in their plan of care, providing for privacy and maintaining confidentiality in health care matters.						RMA
employ principles of teaching and learning in a collaborative approach to support the client, family, and significant others to maintain or reach an optimal level of functioning and to promote practices that foster health.							RMA
examine values, beliefs and practices of different cultures and subcultures in planning nursing care.								RMA
practice managerial skills in prioritizing, administering and delegating nursing care.									RMA
demonstrate knowledge of roles and functions of members of the health care team through collaboration with a health care team.										RMA
promote and evaluate the use of cost efficiency measures implemented by team members.											RMA
administer nursing care in a manner, which demonstrates an awareness of legal/ethical responsibilities while adhering to the current standards of nursing practice.												RMA
assume responsibility for personal and professional behaviors and growth.													RMA
identify the need for and promoting advocacy while respecting the client's dignity, choices and rights.														RMA

promote the professional image of nursing and participating in the advancement of the profession.															RMA

NURS 213 Professional Practice	AAS Nursing
	AS Nursing
	Curriculum Map
		Provider of Care								Manager of Care			Member within the Discipline of Nursing
Program Outcomes	integrate research to aide in effective communication.	apply critical thinking skills and the nursing process to assess, analyze, plan, implement and evaluate nursing care.	demonstrate clear, accurate and objective documentation of patient status and nursing interventions.	employ interpersonal and therapeutic communication skills in working with clients, families and members of the health care team.	practice appropriate technical skills in administering safe nursing care.	demonstrate caring behaviors and considering the uniqueness of the client by allowing participation in their plan of care, providing for privacy and maintaining confidentiality in health care matters.	employ principles of teaching and learning in a collaborative approach to support the client, family, and significant others to maintain or reach an optimal level of functioning and to promote practices that foster health.	examine values, beliefs and practices of different cultures and subcultures in planning nursing care.	practice managerial skills in prioritizing, administering and delegating nursing care.	demonstrate knowledge of roles and functions of members of the health care team in relation to their own role.	promote and evaluate the use of cost efficiency measures implemented by team members.	administer nursing care in a manner, which demonstrates an awareness of legal/ethical responsibilities while adhering to the current standards of nursing practice.	recognize and accept responsibility for personal and professional behaviors and growth.	identify the need for and promoting advocacy while respecting the client's dignity, choices and rights.	promote the professional image of nursing and participating in the advancement of the profession.
Course SLO: Students will be able to differentiate role and function of other members of the healthcare team.				IRA		IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRMA		IRA	IRMA	IRA	IRMA apply leadership and management principles with competence and integrity.				IRA		IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA		IRA	IRMA	IRA	IRMA collaborate with client and multidisciplinary members of the healthcare team to plan care with optimal outcomes.		IRMA		IRA		IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRMA		IRA	IRMA	IRA	IRMA use critical thinking skills to prioritize, delegate and negotiate nursing care.		IRMA		IRA		IRA	IRA		IRA	IRMA		IRA	IRMA	IRA	IRMA analyze ethical and legal dilemmas in health care.		IRMA		IRA		IRA	IRA	IRA	IRA	IRMA		IRMA	IRMA	IRA	IRMA investigate licensure and professional nursing.		IRMA		IRA		IRA	IRA		IRA	IRMA		IMA	IRMA		IRMA

NURS 214 Complex Health Alterations	AAS Nursing
	AS Nursing
	Curriculum Map
		Provider of Care								Manager of Care			Member within the Discipline of Nursing
Program Outcomes	integrate research to aide in effective communication.	apply critical thinking skills and the nursing process to assess, analyze, plan, implement and evaluate nursing care.	demonstrate clear, accurate and objective documentation of patient status and nursing interventions.	employ interpersonal and therapeutic communication skills in working with clients, families and members of the health care team.	practice appropriate technical skills in administering safe nursing care.	demonstrate caring behaviors and considering the uniqueness of the client by allowing participation in their plan of care, providing for privacy and maintaining confidentiality in health care matters.	employ principles of teaching and learning in a collaborative approach to support the client, family, and significant others to maintain or reach an optimal level of functioning and to promote practices that foster health.	examine values, beliefs and practices of different cultures and subcultures in planning nursing care.	practice managerial skills in prioritizing, administering and delegating nursing care.	demonstrate knowledge of roles and functions of members of the health care team in relation to their own role.	promote and evaluate the use of cost efficiency measures implemented by team members.	administer nursing care in a manner, which demonstrates an awareness of legal/ethical responsibilities while adhering to the current standards of nursing practice.	recognize and accept responsibility for personal and professional behaviors and growth.	identify the need for and promoting advocacy while respecting the client's dignity, choices and rights.	promote the professional image of nursing and participating in the advancement of the profession.
Course SLO: Students will be able to apply the nursing process to clients with alterations in the cardiovascular system.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA	IRMA		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA
apply the nursing process to clients with alterations in the cardiovascular system.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA	IRMA		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA
apply the nursing process to clients with alterations in the respiratory system.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA	IRMA		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA develop a health promotion plan for a client with alteration of the respiratory system to achieve an optimum level of health.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA	IRMA		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA
apply the nursing process to clients with alterations of the nervous system.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA	IRMA		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA develop a health promotion plan for a client with alterations of the nervous system to achieve an optimum level of health.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA	IRMA		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA
apply the nursing process to client with alterations of the integumentary system.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA	IRMA		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA
apply the nursing process to client with alterations of the endocrine system.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA	IRMA		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA develop a health promotion plan for a client with an alteration of the endocrine system to achieve an optimum level of health.		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA	IRMA	IRMA		IRMA		IRMA		IRMA

ENGL 102 English II	AAS Nursing
	AS Nursing
	Curriculum Map
		Provider of Care									Manager of Care			Member within the Discipline of Nursing
Program Outcomes	integrate research to aide in effective communication.	apply critical thinking skills and the nursing process to assess, analyze, plan, implement and evaluate nursing care.	demonstrate clear, accurate and objective documentation of patient status and nursing interventions.	employ interpersonal and therapeutic communication skills in working with clients, families and members of the health care team.	practice appropriate technical skills in administering safe nursing care.	demonstrate caring behaviors and considering the uniqueness of the client by allowing participation in their plan of care, providing for privacy and maintaining confidentiality in health care matters.	employ principles of teaching and learning in a collaborative approach to support the client, family, and significant others to maintain or reach an optimal level of functioning and to promote practices that foster health.	examine values, beliefs and practices of different cultures and subcultures in planning nursing care.	practice managerial skills in prioritizing, administering and delegating nursing care.	demonstrate knowledge of roles and functions of members of the health care team in relation to their own role.	promote and evaluate the use of cost efficiency measures implemented by team members.	administer nursing care in a manner, which demonstrates an awareness of legal/ethical responsibilities while adhering to the current standards of nursing practice.	recognize and accept responsibility for personal and professional behaviors and growth.	identify the need for and promoting advocacy while respecting the client's dignity, choices and rights.	promote the professional image of nursing and participating in the advancement of the profession.
Course SLO: Students will be able to compose persuasive or informative texts acknowledging the expectations of specific audiences.	IRMA apply research strategies including finding, evaluating, analyzing, and synthesizing sources.	IRMA employ an appropriate style for citing and listing sources.	IRMA demonstrate the ability to read and think critically about texts.	IRMA																